

FLP - October 31, 2013 - Umstead State Park

Join us for a Food, Land and People (FLP) educators' workshop at Umstead State Park in Raleigh on Thursday, October 31st.

This workshop will be a fall festival of lessons and activities to create awareness and understanding about the interrelationships between food production, the environment, and human needs. Go home with a cornucopia of ideas and resources.

Bring a lunch and enjoy the pleasant autumn weather and the out-of-doors. Break snacks will be provided.

Register below and then send a $15.00 registration check to secure your spot in the workshop. Make check payable to "NCASWCD" and send it to:

FLP-Soil & Water Conservation
721 Foster Street
Durham, NC 27701
